

Great Streets Great Cities

Janette Sadik-Khan in the GTA

► From talking to doing!

Janette Sadik-Khan

Commissioner NYC
Department of Transportation

Comes to Ontario

Organized by:

- Wednesday April 22nd 2009
- 7:15 pm- 9:00pm
- Clarke Hall, Port Credit
- 161 Lakeshore Road West. Mississauga, Ontario

A champion of the Sustainable Transportation and the Liveable Streets movement, the Commissioner of New York City's Department of Transportation, Janette Sadik-Khan is making walking, cycling, and public transportation serious priorities for New York City.

In office since 2007, Sadik-Khan has already graced New York City's streets with pedestrian plazas, physically separated bicycle lanes, and dedicated bus lanes, as well as organizing the wildly successful car free "Summer Streets" program.

Join us for this free and informative public session and learn how these exciting ideas can be put into action in your own community!

Community host:

In partnership with:

